

Prepare Your Home for a Seamless Sale

THE ESSENTIAL SPRING-CLEANING CHECKLIST FOR SELLERS

As the blossoms return and the air turns warmer, it's the perfect time to breathe new life into your home and prepare it for sale. A thorough spring cleaning can go a long way towards making your property stand out and leave a lasting impression on prospective buyers. Here's a comprehensive checklist to guide you through the process:

EVALUATE

YOUR HOME'S FIRST IMPRESSION

1. Power wash the exterior for a fresh look.
2. Trim hedges and trees to create an inviting entrance.
3. Incorporate colourful plants to add vibrancy.

DELVE INTO A DEEP INTERIOR REFRESH

4. Clear away personal items to allow buyers to envision themselves in the space.
5. Brighten rooms by cleaning windows, blinds and curtains.
6. Address any visible wear and tear with touch-ups and repairs.

A METICULOUS POLISH FOR EVERY CORNER

7. Give floors and skirtings a thorough cleaning.
8. Ensure kitchen appliances shine inside and out.
9. Eliminate dust from ceiling fans, light fixtures and vents.

ORGANISE & CURATE

10. Neatly arrange wardrobes, cupboards and storage areas.
11. Rearrange furniture to showcase the room's potential.
12. Decorate with a light touch to accentuate the home's character.

ATTEND TO THE FINER POINTS

13. Replace any burnt-out lightbulbs.
14. Address minor plumbing issues such as a dripping tap.
15. Transform outdoor spaces into inviting extensions of the home.

CAPTURE THE ESSENCE IN PHOTOS

16. Capture high-quality images for online listings.
17. Highlight unique features that set your home apart.

PUTTING ON THE FINAL FLOURISH

18. Conduct a final walk-through to ensure perfection.
19. Consider professional cleaning or staging for an added edge.
20. Get ready to impress potential buyers with a home that radiates warmth, cleanliness and readiness.

Remember, the effort you invest in spring cleaning can significantly impact how buyers perceive your property. By following this checklist, you're not only preparing your home for sale but also providing a captivating experience that buyers won't forget.
